

CABIN WILL BE MOVED TO PARK

Committee Finds Log House in Which
Gen. P. A. Hackleman Was Born
to be Well Preserved

FROM 113 TO 115 YEARS OLD

Can be Taken Apart and Moved
Here For Erection in Park Without Suffering Any Damage

The committee of Rushville citizens which inspected the log cabin in which General P. A. Hackleman was born in Franklin county, Monday, found that the old log house is in a fine state of preservation and can easily be moved to the new park which the Rushville city council proposes to create in the tract of land adjoining the present city park on the north.

Preparations will be made at once to move the cabin here. Frank Reynolds of the Reynolds Manufacturing company has offered the use of one of his logging trucks to haul it to Rushville some day when the weather is not fit for hauling logs.

The cabin will be torn down and the parts marked so that it can be erected in the addition to the city park and will look just as it does now, situated in a hollow in a Franklin county woods.

The cabin is between 113 and 115 years of age, the committee was informed by Franklin county historians, and is so well preserved that every log in it can be moved without being damaged, with the possible exception of two.

The cabin is about twenty by thirty feet and has a loft, which may be reached by a winding stairway, that Rush county men who viewed it yesterday said was a marvel. There is an immense flagstone chimney which may be taken down and rebuilt here, it is believed.

One-half of the roof still is covered with old clapboards such as were used before shingles came into use. The north side of the roof, however, has been shingled. It is planned to reproduce the old roof when the cabin is brought here.

The members of the committee, which was composed of Mayor Walter R. Thomas, Robert L. Tompkins, Robert E. Mansfield, Walter F. Easley, Omer Trusler and E. J. Knecht, were enthused over the project and believe that it will be a very valuable asset in the new park.

If the proposal to locate the bust of General Hackleman in the park is successful, the historic value of the cabin will be greatly increased, it is believed, and will mean much to the future of the county.

In view of the fact that General Hackleman was the only Indiana general killed in the civil war, repeated efforts have been made to get recognition of his military record by the state and nation, but none of them was ever successful.

SEVERAL NARROWLY ESCAPE DROWNING

Miss Grace Schaeffer Drags Young
Men Under Water When She Gets
Beyond Her Depth

HER BROTHER ALSO RESCUED

Drowning fatalities were almost registered in Rushville Monday night when several swimmers had a narrow escape in a gravel pit north of Rushville. Dixie Bennett and a companion persuaded Miss Grace Schaeffer to enter deeper water, and as a result Miss Schaeffer stepped in water that was over her head, and she clung to Bennett and the other boy, pulling them underneath. The trio went down twice, when their calls for help were heard.

Charley Schaeffer, brother of Miss Schaeffer, was in the swimming party, and he went to their rescue, only to be pulled down by his sister who was struggling for her life. Other swimmers assisted in the rescue, and Charley Schaeffer was removed to the bank, where it was necessary to give him first aid treatment. The others also survived after being compelled to rest for a time.

MERCURY IS CLIMBING AGAIN

Continuance Of Heat Wave Predict-
ed With Temperature At 90

The mercury is again taking an upward trend, this week, after having acted decently last week, and Monday and today the indicator pointed around 90 degrees, according to Elwood Kirkwood, in charge of the government station at Manzy.

The hot temperature today, however, was somewhat offset with a breeze that aided greatly in keeping the intense heat from being noticed. Indications for a continuance of the heat wave is predicted by the weather bureau, with increasing cloudiness tonight.

The hottest to be recorded this summer was a few weeks ago, in June, when 93 degrees was reached by the thermometer.

SCHOOL REVENUE IS DISTRIBUTED

Townships and Rushville City on
Per Capita Basis

Schools of Other Counties—Sum
Each Unit Receives

Distribution of Rush county's share of the school revenue returned by the state auditor after the state distribution has been completed and the warrants were mailed out today to the township trustees and other school officials of the county.

Rush county turned over to the state for school purposes the sum of $23,744.84, three-fourths of which was raised by taxation, at the June settlement, and received back only $9,857.94, making the balance against the county $13,886.90. This represents the sum Rush county contributes toward the support of the schools of other counties.

The distribution in both the state and county is made on a per capita basis. The number of persons of school age in the state is divided into the amount to be distributed to arrive at the per capita.

The common school revenue which the county sent to the state in June was composed of taxes, which amounted to $19,999.85, and interest on loans of the common school fund, or any other indebtedness due and payable to the fund, which amounted to $3,744.99.

The sum distributed in the county also included $716.41 which was derived from the congressional township fund, including the interest on loans of the fund, and on deferred

THREE PLEAD NOT GUILTY BEFORE MAYOR

John Ricker, Frank Whitton and
Earl Miller Arraigned For Transporting Liquor

ALL GIVE BONDS FOR $400

John Ricker and Frank Whitton, who were arrested Sunday evening by the police, said to be intoxicated, were arraigned in police court, before Mayor Thomas last night and each entered a plea of not guilty, and the third arrest, Earl Miller, which was made last night, also resulted in a plea of not guilty.

The three men are charged with unlawfully transporting liquor, and all of them gave bonds in the sum of $400 each. Their trial has been set for Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

A quart bottle of liquor was said to have been found by the police, near one of the men, and the affidavit charges that the three made a trip Sunday to the hills of Franklin county and purchased the liquor.

Miller is accused of using his machine for making the trip, and the trio is charged with transporting it. The new law under such circumstances, makes the crime a felony, upon conviction, punishable with a prison term.

The completed program for the Rush county chautauqua, August 5 to 11 inclusive, was announced today, together with the names of the guarantors from whom season tickets may now be purchased.

The price of the tickets will be the same. Adult season tickets, which will be non-transferable as usual, may be purchased for $2.00 of guarantors prior to the opening of the chautauqua, but after that time they will be $2.50. Children's season tickets, admitting children between the ages of eight and twelve, are also non-transferable and may be bought of guarantors for $1.00.

Single admission will be fifty cents on four days and thirty-five cents four days. The extra charge will be made for the Sunday programs and the feature programs on Thursday and Friday. The Shepherd of the Hills company will present two famous plays on Thursday and on Friday Bachman's Million Dollar band will be the attraction.

The program measures up to any that has been offered in the eighteen years that the chautauqua has been in progress here and it is expected that the guarantors tickets will be taken rapidly.

The Rush county teachers institute will be held in connection with the chautauqua again this year, the teachers returning to the old custom which was in vogue for many years, but was abandoned a few years ago on the theory that the chautauqua conflicted with the institute. Teachers may purchase a combination institute and chautauqua ticket for $2.50 at Hargrove and Brown's drug store after July 21.

Guarantors for this year's assembly who have tickets are as follows: Abercrombie Brothers, W. A. Alexander, Allie Aldridge, L. L. Allen, J. T. Arbuckle, Geo. F. Billings, E. B. ## NO EFFORT MADE TO GET BOND FOR CRANLEY

Young Man Found In Machine Containing 42 Quarts Of Whiskey—
Is Still In Jail

NO FURTHER ARREST MADE

James Cranley, the young man who was caught Saturday night by police officers in an automobile that contained 42 quart bottles of Canadian liquor, was still in jail today, unable to provide any bond. No effort was being made to secure his release, it was stated.

Unless he can provide bond, it will mean that he will remain in jail until September, when court convenes, unless a plea of guilty is entered on July 23, when court will hold a one day adjourned session. Cranley has a wife and a 4-months-old baby living in Mays.

No further arrests have been made in the case, as two other companions escaped. One of them is a Rushville boy and the other is from South Bend. The machine which was used to transport the liquor to this city was rented from a firm in South Bend, and the owners were expected here Wednesday to start proceedings to recover the booze laden machine.

WILL MAKE SECOND ATTEMPT NEXT WEEK

St. Joseph, Mo., July 10.—Lieutenant Russell Maughan today supervised the repairing of his "bullet" pursuit plane in which he made an unsuccessful attempt to fly from coast to coast between dawn and dark on Monday.

Maughan plans to fly back to New York tomorrow and try again next week to beat the sun in a race across the continent.

The aviator was not downhearted. "I am disappointed, but not discouraged," he said.

"Results so far are satisfactory. I was in sight of the flying field here yesterday when I was forced to land because of my gas feed was stopped up.

"Even then I could have elaned out the feed in a few minutes and gone ahead, if two crows had not stopped in front of the plane as it skimmed the ground forcing me to swerve sharply. That is what broke my landing gear."

BOYS TO MEET AT CITY PARK TONIGHT AT 7:00

All Rushville and Rush county boys were called to meet at the city park tonight at seven o'clock by Albert F. Cotton, director of physical education in the Rushville public schools. All boys between the ages of 10 and 17 are urged to be present as the matter is one of great importance.

PICNIC DETAILS ARE COMPLETED

Fried Chicken Will be Password at
Pilgrims of Nahor Outing Near
Carthage Thursday

SOME FEATURES ARRANGED

R. H. Hollywood, Past Grand Master of Indianapolis, Said to Have Something Amusing in Store

The committee in charge of the Pilgrims of Nahor picnic to be held near Carthage next Thursday are rapidly whipping the details in shape and announce that all indications point to a very successful meeting. Members of the committee who have visited the grounds recently report them in fine shape with ideal bathing facilities, the water being of variable depths for all classes of swimmers with sand and gravel bottom surrounded by beautiful shade trees and lawn.

Tables have already been sent to the ground for serving the cafeteria lunch at noon and a refreshment stand will be on hand to cater to the wants of all.

Reports from out-of-town points indicate that the attendance from those points will outnumber the local people and that many of them have surprises in store in the way of entertainment. The Milroy delegation have secured Ned Jackman, the talented young singer, and R. H. Hollywood, past grand master of Indianapolis, a Nimrod, has inquired as to the number of Nimrods that will likely be in attendance which would indicate that he has something in store that will be amusing.

The Nimrods a select and restricted group, will have separate accommodations and signs will be erected directing them to their proper places. The Knights of L'Emon will wear their decorations to indicate their rank. The announcement that no collection will be taken has created some surprise as the collection has always been one of the most important features of all meetings heretofore. The mortality rate of spring chickens is expected to increase greatly during the next two days, as fried chicken has been declared the password for the picnic.

WHOLESALE LIQUOR LAW VIOLATIONS SEEN

Federal Agents Held Warrants For
Arrest of Fort Wayne and Allen
County People

BOOTLEGGERS IN CONFESSIONS

(By United Press)

Fort Wayne, Ind., July 10.—Developments in the intensive federal probe into liquor law violations here revealed today a marked widespread traffic in whiskey and beer in Fort Wayne and Allen county.

Federal agents hold score of warrants for the arrest of local persons and everything points to a booze clean-up of unrivaled scope.

Confessions made by a number of bootleggers and operators of stills already arrested showed that a regular system of booze manufacture, distribution and sale, has been in progress here for many months.

Dry law violators already in the toils, told of having regularly supplied local soft drink parlors and other concerns with large supplies of moonshine whiskey and beer.

Late yesterday afternoon, Bernard A. Moran, head of the B. A. Moran Ice Company, was taken into custody, following a raid by federal officials on the company's plant where a quantity of beer was found.

SEARCH FOR NULL REDOUBLED TODAY

Possible That Missing Aid Of Dead
Ballooning, Lieut. Roth, May
Be Still Alive

AIRPLANES AID IN SEARCH

Authorities Believe That Null Leaped Into Lake In Vain Effort To
Save The Balloon

(By United Press)

Port Stanley, Ont., July 10.—Search for Lieutenant T. B. Null missing from the ill-fated United States Navy balloon A-6698 was redoubled following discovery of the body of Lieutenant L. J. Roth, his companion, 14 miles off Port Stanley in Lake Erie yesterday.

Airplanes and all manner of water craft took up search with the hope of finding the missing airman still alive. As long as Lieut Null is missing, there is a chance that he may not be dead, authorities here declare.

The body of Lieutenant Roth, found floating in the basket of the air monster, by the fishing boat Onajag and brought into Port Stanley, was taken to Cleveland last night by Lieutenant James H. Strong in a hydro-airplane.

Lieutenant Null stripped himself of his clothing and leaped into Lake Erie early Saturday morning in a vain effort to save the balloon, authorities declared they believed after an investigation of the basket in which Lieutenant Roth's body was tied.

The balloon was struck by a furious storm while flying over Lake Erie, it was believed. The airman were blown dangerously close to the foaming crest of the lake, and in an effort to send their craft above the storm and save it from being wrecked in the open water, miles from any port, the ballast and articles of any weight were tossed from the balloon.

The massive gey bag arose but the fury of the storm again drove it down. The two lieutenants threw away everything save a few tubes of food. The balloon still hovered just above the water.

Null, an officer of the United States navy and honoring its traditions and fastening on a life belt he hurled himself into the stormy waters—gave himself as a human ballast.

Whether he was able to save himself in the storm is yet to be learned.

M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOLS WILL HOLD A PICNIC

Addresses by Three Men of Prominence, Basket Dinner and Social
Features for July 31

MASSED ORCHESTRA PLANNED

A picnic for Methodist Sunday schools of the county will be held at the city park here on Tuesday, July 31, three weeks from today, and speakers of prominence in the church will deliver addresses. A meeting of pastors and one layman from each church in the county was held here last week to complete plans for the picnic.

The picnic will begin at ten o'clock in the morning and a program will be carried out before the noon hour. A basket dinner will be served and, in the afternoon a social time will be enjoyed and athletic contests for the boys will be arranged. Church choirs of the county will provide selections and A. P. Wagoner of this city is endeavoring to arrange for a massed orchestra composed of the M. E. Sunday school orchestras of the county.

The speakers, whose identity has not been made known, will be sent here by Bishop Leete of the Indianapolis area, who is sponsoring similar meetings throughout his jurisdiction. They will go to Connersville the afternoon of the same day to address a similar meeting of Fayette county churches.

There are fourteen Methodist churches in county and each is expected to send a good size delegation.

CODLING MOTH IS ABUNDANT IN STATE

Every Effort Should Be Made To
Spray Thoroughly For The Second Brood Of Larvae

SUGGESTED DATES FOR WORK

The codling moth or apple worm is very abundant in Indiana this year and every effort should be made, to spray thoroughly for the second brood of larvae.

According to Prof. J. J. Davis, head of the department of entomology, Purdue University, a study of the insect and weather conditions in several sections of Indiana shows that the larvae will be hatching soon and therefore the first spray for the second brood should be made on the following dates: From Mitchell and Vincennes south, July 10-12; Bloomington south, July 12-15; Noblesville south, July, 16-18; Fort Wayne south, July 19-22; extreme north end of the state, July 23-26. The fruit should be thoroughly covered with an arsenate of lead spray, three pounds to 100 gallons of water, by these dates and to get the best results a similar application should be made again two weeks later.

Forecasting the time to spray for the second brood of worms, which sometimes cause serious losses to the apple crop, has been very successful in the past and has resulted in a great saving. This spray is doubly important.

Clinton County Wheat Treating Ring Succeeds

Clinton county farmers have demonstrated that the hot water treatment of seed wheat to prevent smut can be successfully done by farmers without any help. Last fall ten farmers, J. M. Hillis, Tim New, Jarrell Bros., D. L. Mabbitt, Russell Jankins, L. L. Fickle, F. S. Fiddle, Claude Horlader, R. W. Immell and Ray Gaskill treated their wheat at four different farmer's cooperative treating stations.

This treated wheat was examined on June 8 by Purdue University extension botanists and it would be difficult to find finer looking fields. "If D. L. Mabbitt had any more wheat on his treated field he would have to take down the fences to prevent the plant being choked to death," is the way one of the men put it. Early last spring Mr. Mabbitt was very doubtful if the field would amount to anything. In this wheat was found just one head of smut. Jarrell Bros., have a field of wheat just as good. L. L. Fickle wheat is good and J. M. Hillis' treated wheat will be hard to beat.

These Clinton county farmers have shown two things: first, that the farmers can treat their own wheat if they will carefully follow directions and not begin the work until they have been started right; second, that hot water treated wheat will produce as good a crop if not better than the untreated wheat.

THIRTEEN LITTERS IN THE COMPETITION

Seven Rush County Farmers Entered In The Hoosier Ton Litter Club This Year

TOUR PLANNED FOR AUGUST

Seven Rush county farmers have nominated a total of 13 litters for competition in the Hoosier Ton Litter Club this year, County Agent D. D. Ball reports.

One farmer, Thos. W. Chambers, has nominated seven litters, totalling 72 pigs, and it is his goal to market this carload of pigs from seven sows at an average age of six months and weighing 200 pounds per head or better. This will not only put him in the Gold Medal class, but will serve as an excellent demonstration of good management and feeding.

Mr. Chambers has also the distinction of saving 94 per cent of all pigs farrowed.

A tour to a number of the Ton Litter farms is planned for the middle of August, to be held the same day at the soy bean field demonstration meeting, thus connecting the two projects.

Tester Shows Dairyman How to Reduce Feed Bill

There were 370 cows tested in the local cow testing associations last month in Washington County, with an average production of 26.5 lb. fat. The average of the ten high cows was 51.7 lb. fat and 98.5 lb. of milk. Ten unprofitable cows were sold during the month. The result in one herd demonstrated the advisability of feeding cows as individuals. In this herd, all cows had been fed the same in March, the tester figured the amount of grain needed for each cow with the result that 40 lbs. of grain was saved daily without any decrease in milk production. Members generally are using home mixed feed and increasing their acreage of legumes for roughage, says County Agent C. R. Furnas.

PURDUE RATION PAYS

The 619 hens kept on the Duncan Poultry Demonstration Farm in Monroe County produced 11,580 eggs during May. The total expenses for the month were $94.41 and the total income $189.67, leaving a profit of $95.26. It required 74 hours labor to care for the flock, making a labor income of $1.28 per hour. The hens were fed the standard Purdue ration in both mash and grain.

PREVENTION IS BETTER THAN CURE

Proper Precautions Are Repaid By
Increased Vitality Of Chick And
Fowl, Says Expert

NEED SIMPLE TREATMENT

Poultryman Usually Kills Any Birds
That Do Not Recover Quickly
From Simple Treatment

Preventive measures are always the best treatment for poultry troubles. A fowl should be handled in such a way as to contract as few diseases as possible and the slightest indication of an ailment should be treated before it has a chance to get a headway. This requires constant attention, but it is the only way to success because disease in a flock of poultry reduces vitality and their production and breeding value is diminished.

None but very simple treatment is ordinarily necessary for any poultry. Any ailment that will not yield readily to simple treatment is usually so serious that even if a fowl is able to recover from it the results will not be satisfactory because the vitality of the fowl will have been lowered. Hence the practical poultryman, except in the case of particularly valuable poultry, usually kills any birds that do not recover quickly from simple treatment.

There are a few general symptoms of ill health in poultry. Fowls in poor health will usually exhibit a dull, sluggish listless appearance. They will often go to roost early and remain there in the morning until long after other fowls are out looking for food. Fowls in poor health may have a bloodless appearance, that is, there will be an absence of health and brightness in their faces, eyes, combs and wattles. They will also lay but few eggs.

Sick fowls are inclined to stay apart from the other fowls and will stand in out-of-the-way places and are found sunning themselves, their heads hung and their feathers ruffled. It is natural for fowls to sun themselves, but there is a marked difference between healthy fowls basking in the sunshine for recreation and the sick fowl standing there in the hope of warming his body.

Disease in poultry is always accompanied by a loss of appetite and generally by frequent violence of the bowels.

Medicine is most satisfactorily administered to a flock of fowls by being fed mixed in a warm or slightly warmed mash. When medicine is to be administered to any individual fowl pills are usually the most convenient form. When medicine is poured down a fowl's throat care be taken to avoid strangulation.

There are a few fundamental principles of treatment that can be used to good advantage in the management of poultry:

1. Clean out by means of Epsom salts, administered in an evening mash, estimating one-third of a teaspoonful for each adult bird. In some cases it may be necessary to administer this two or three times a week until there is an abatement of the disease. Even well birds should receive one such dose at the beginning of any disease in a flock.

2. Clean up the poultry house by thoroughly spraying the interior with a good insecticide so that it penetrates all cracks and crevices.

3. Purify the drinking water by adding enough permanganate of potash to turn the water a claret red. Ordinarily, use as much as can be spread on a ten cent piece to the gallon of water. If this is not available, iron sulphate in the proportion of 10 gr. to a gallon may be used.

4. Furnish poultry with only clean food. Moldy food is almost certain to produce disease and may cause death. There is no economy in feeding decayed food.

5. Clean incubators and brooders thoroughly with hot water and soap thoroughly with hot water and soap and disinfectant.

6. Breed from the youngest females consistent with the needs of good breeding.

Steady Work In Harvest Field Is Promised Men

Indianapolis, Ind., July 9. — Steady work in the harvest fields for the next five or six weeks was promised to applicants today by Prof. W. Q. Fitch, of Purdue, head of the state clearing house for men needed in the harvest field.

The most urgent need for help is in Benton and Cass counties. By sending men north into new fields as the wheat crop is harvested and calling them back to handle the hay harvest and oat crop, it will be possible for the men to obtain practically steady work for several weeks, Prof. Fitch said.

TORCH CATCHES FIRE

An acetylene torch in the Mullins and Taylor garage caught fire this afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, and for a time threatened to do serious damage. The fire department was called and chemicals were used to subdue the flames, and the tank was carried from the building before any damage was done.

FRANK BRADEN IMPROVES

Indianapolis, Ind., July 10.—The condition of Frank Braden of Greensburg, a student at DePauw University, is much improved, according to late reports from the Methodist hospital where he is confined. Braden suffered a fractured skull in an automobile accident at Greencastle.

Greater Crops

CONDITIONS in the farming industry are the broad-gauged barometers of general business in the United States.

When crops are good prosperity is general.

It is obvious, therefore, that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) can turn its facilities and talents to no more important task than that of assisting the farmer to secure a greater crop return per acre.

The experience of the past ten or fifteen years has demonstrated that farms where automotive equipment is used are operated on a lower cost level and with a higher crop return than is the case where animal power is used.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is doing its utmost to promote the use of motorized machinery on the farm. Throughout ten middle western states this Company maintains a system of distribution which insures the farmer a dependable supply of gasoline, kerosene, lubricants and other products of petroleum at all times.

In this territory the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) maintains 3,780 bulk stations, out of which some 7,000 trucks and tank wagons carry its products to the farmer's home or if necessary to the tractor in the field.

This is one of the services which only a big organization could perform and it is a service worth while.

To emphasize the far reaching benefits of motorizing farm equipment, it is only necessary to state that farm property values in the United States have increased from forty billions of dollars in 1910 to eighty-five billions in 1920—an advance of 107% for a ten-year period.

The service performed by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been a factor of importance in making this increase possible.

RADIO PROFITEERS ITS GREATEST FOES

High Cost of Parts Handicap to Growth of Radio, in Opinion of Francis Hamilton

Profiteering in radio parts has done more to hinder the advance of radio than any other one element, in the opinion of Francis Hamilton of Indianapolis, formerly of this city, who has had considerable experience both as an amateur and in the army, and who spoke before the Rotary club here today noon.

Mr. Hamilton formerly had a broadcasting station in Indianapolis and conducted a column for radio fans in the Indianapolis News. He is now in the building department of the city of Indianapolis, but has not lost his interest in radio, judging from the terse explanation of the subject which he gave to Rotarians. Mr. Hamilton expressed regret that Indiana people had not shown enough interest in radio to support a broadcasting station. He said the Indianapolis stations had quit for financial reasons.

The speaker outlined the marvelous growth of radio and detailed the many valuable purposes which it served, terming its use in shipping as the most valuable. He deplored the fact that manufacturers of parts made such a large profit.

Miss Margaret Winship gave three readings before the club and was vigorously applauded. She read "Bumble Bee" by James Whitcomb Riley, "Six Times Six is Thirty-six and Six is Forty-two" and "Miss Mary Jane Brown." Miss Betty Innis played the piano accompaniment for one number.

DRESSER MEMORIAL BEGUN

Terre Haute, Ind., July 9—Work on the Memorial Drive which will commemorate the life of Paul Dresser, Hoosier song writer, was started here Monday.

By the stream which Dresser made famous in his first song, "On the Banks of the Wabash," Mayor Davis turned the first spade of dirt for the new drive.

Exercises at the riverside followed a big parade in which civic organizations, fraternal societies and school children marched. A medley of Dresser songs was played by the Chamber of Commerce band and Robert H. Catlin, an attorney, delivered an address on the life of Dresser.

On proclamation of Mayor Davis all business houses were closed during the hour of the ceremony to permit all employes to attend the exercises.

DAIRY CASE APPEALED

Indianapolis, Ind., July 10.—Appeal from the decision of Judge Hay of Marion County Superior court in which the Indiana members of dairy product organization and fifty allied milk and dairy concerns were acquitted of violations of anti-trust law, was asked today in transcripts filed for the state by Attorney General Lesh. The trial before Judge Hay was the result of an investigation by the state in 1921 in which 50 dairy concerns throughout the state were charged with violating the Sherman anti-trust law.

STATE PARKS NOW A BIG MOVEMENT

Small Beginning in 1916 Has Expanded Until Today The State Controls A Chain Of Them

Indianapolis, Ind., July 10.—Recreational places such as national, state and city parks; summer cottages on lakes and river shore line and in primitive wooded spots if accessible to state roads, are today accepted as integral part of our very existence.

From a small beginning in 1916 the state park movement expanded until Indiana now has a chain of beautiful reservations, situated in extreme north and south parts of the state, reflecting not only the primitive life of the commonwealth but which are linked with the state's glorious history.

There is no question but that the state park movement helped to popularize the summer resort idea, and was an efficient aid to extension of city park systems. Particularly is this true near congested industrial centers where natural beauty and architectural skill of landscape artists build great parks whose cool shady retreats are sought by many thousands. In the last years the big city park idea reached out and was accepted by small communities. Today hardly a county but points with pride to a recreational spot, delightful either for its wooded tract or pure water supply.

See Indiana first is the motto of hundreds of thousands of motorists, and that many seek purely primitive pleasures is evidenced in that excess of 150,000 took out resident fishing and hunting licenses last year.

That state parks, the four fish hatcheries where millions of baby fish are propagated annually and planted in public waters, and state roads are a tremendous financial asset to the state, is undisputed when we learn that devotees of Ike Walton's hobby spent over seven million dollars last year. This sum is arrived at on the basis that each man who took out a dollar hunting and fishing license spent in the matter of equipment such as rods, reels, camping outfits, fishing boots, shot guns, rifles, sweaters, clothing, gasoline, oil tires restaurant and hotel service, approximately $50. That a number of people profited by this expenditure is further evidenced in the variety of things purchased. No attempt is made by conservation officials to estimate the vast good to the people by reason of rejuvenated health and the ambition to success because of escape from farm, mill and office work for a few days or weeks, but it is enormous.

We note that the secretary of state's office last year sold $2,168,160.50 worth of license plates. Estimating that each machine operator entailed an expenditure of $500, we find that the automobile was the medium through which $205,199,160.50 was put in circulation with all lines of business interests receiving a portion.

"It is next it impossible to find accommodations during the summer season in the hotels, boarding houses and cottages of our lakes and streams, while building lots on lake and river fronts are at premium," declares Mr. Lieber. "Out

PRAYER IN THE MORNING:
—My voice shalt Thou hear in the morning, O Lord; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.—Psalms 5: 3.

The Boy Scouts

We are all interested in the welfare of the boys of this community. Anything that will improve their condition will meet with the approval of the people in general.

What better could we do for them than to support the Boy Scout company, an organization in which boys naturally take a just pride?

Select a hundred men indiscriminately and start them out on a ten mile hike.

Will there be any order and precision to their progress? Not a bit. They will move forward as a mob—some with a degree of pride in their appearance, and others with shoulders slouched and feet scraping the ground.

That is the natural result of a lack of early training.

Take the same number of men who have had military training and start them out. You will notice a vast difference.

There will be no slouchy shoulders, no feet scraping the ground, no ungainly tread, no indecision or lack of purpose.

You will see their bodies erect, shoulders squared, heads and eyes to the front—a brisk and steady tramp, tramp, tramp. And it will be purely instinctive and without premeditation.

That is the result of training. The Boy Scout organization does not make soldiers of men, but it does make real men out of boys.

The physical training is much along the lines of that provided in the army, with enough variation to satisfy the juvenile heart. And the world admits that military training is the best that has ever been devised by mankind.

The Boy Scout company will be wonderfully beneficial to our boys. It gives them a hobby, while at the same time affording the physical training that would develop them as nothing else could do.

The discipline teaches them obedience to orders and self restraint and control, and the training and moral influence combined gives them that self reliance which is so necessary in our modern business life.

We want our boys to be men among men.

Why not support the Boy Scout company to help them along?

American newspaper photographers, noted for always being "on the scene," slipped a cog recently and missed a golden opportunity.

As the commanding general of the British forces in Germany was crossing, the border Belgian customs officials boarded his special train, routed him out of his comfortable bed, and forced him to stand for an hour shivering in the cold on the ear platform, clad only in his nightshirt, while they inspected his baggage.

What a corking picture it would have made for the illustrated sections of Sunday editions!

A noted British general, teeth chattering in the cold, and the wind whistling through his whiskers while his shirt tails flapped in the breeze. Ye gods!

Report that Dempsey-Gibbons mistook their fight for a non-stop dancing contest is untrue.

Be careful what the parrot hears while your wife's away.

Shelby has the fight bowl left, but she can't eat out of it.

A summer tourist stopped long enough to tell us our roads should be made wider and shorter.

Married ball players seldom argue with umpires. They have forgotten how to argue.

It's a wise bootlegger that knows his own booze.

A wife will notice a blond hair on her husband's coat and won't notice a button off.

World's champion pie eater has set a new record. Bet we know a dozen kids who can beat him.

Boyles arena has 30 acres. When the Firpo-Willard fight is over it will have two more acres.

Bartenders should make good umpires. They are used to bottles.

Nights are getting too warm for two to sit in the same chair.

Everything has its place. Flies keep lots of people from just sitting around doing nothing.

Trouble with mixing business and pleasure is you are liable to run out of business.

Higginbotham was released on $10,000 bond pending disposition of his appeal motion.

SCOUT NOTES

A special offer has been made to the Boy Scouts of Rushville and vicinity by the National headquarters whereby Scouts may obtain Boys' Life, the official Scout magazine for one year for one dollar. The regular cost of a yearly subscription is two dollars. Boys' Life compares additional articles on the different lines of Scouting. Any boys interested in this offer must get their dollars to Mr. Merrell not later than July 16. One Scout once remarked about Boys' Life: "Boys' Life is to Scouting what textbooks are to school." Dan Beard has a splendid department in this magazine for round table discussions among the boys.

Mr. Merrell will be in town tomorrow afternoon to give out the Scout registration certificates. Scouts who have paid their registration fees should see him at 836 N. Jackson St. Any other Scouts who wish to pay at that time may do so.

FIFTEEN YEARS
AGO TODAY

From The Daily Republican

Friday, July 10, 1908

Denver, July 10—Just as the sun peeped over the edge of the plain in the east, tinting with its delicate colors the peaks of the mountains shadowed in purple, the vote that made William Jennings Bryan the nominee of his party for a third time to make the race for the presidency of the United States was cast in the Denver Auditorium and the great crowd, most of which, women and all, had waited through the long hours of the night and listened with unwilling ears much of the time to a long list of nominating speeches, left the hall for its late couch, most of the delegates to remain abed until noon, giving themselves just time to reach the hall again at one o'clock, to which time the convention adjourned.

Mayor Cowing will appoint W. R. Payne of Arlington next week to officiate as city surveyor for Rushville to fill the unexpired term of Lon Stewart, who resigned recently. Mr. Payne is a capable young man and will give his new duties his undivided attention.

Job had many things to contend with but he never had anything occur more exasperating than the ill fortune which has befallen Mrs. Nick Tompkins, living north of this city. It was with a certain sense of pride and all the love and tenderness of a mother that the wife of the hero of many ball games watched over two hundred or more little chicks; saw them break for liberty and grow from day to day until they became of age—that is large enough to fry. You never saw a woman in your life who had two hundred spring chickens but what she was proud of the acquisition but that's another story. When Mrs. Tompkins went to the chicken yard early this morning to feed the chick regiment she found them gone. They have no clue to the chicken thieves. It was a bold theft as every one of the "springers" were taken.

The hum of the threshing machine is heard all over the country today, several of the outfits in this vicinity having started out this morning. Claude Simpson entertained his Sunday school class with a fine and dandy outing yesterday.

The "water wagon" ran over a dog on the down town streets this afternoon killing it. City Dog Undertaker Watt Bartlett interred it at the usual price—twenty five cents. More work for the undertaker.

A six o'clock dinner was given at the home of Mrs. George Monjar in West Second street last evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Bert Talbott and daughters, Hypatia and Lucile, of Indianapolis, who are the guests at David Marshalls, west of this city.

Jerome Sampson was in the Capitol city today on business. Little Vivian Vance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Vance, was painfully injured in a fall last evening. Mrs. George Goddard of West Second street is seriously ill with acute indigestion.

Roy Aldridge was voted a continued scholarship in the Purdue University this week by the county commissioners.

Say England Was Cold

By PAUL R. MALLON
(Written for United Press)

New York, July 10—The air was damp and chilly at Troon when the British open golf championships were held recently.

A cold rain poured down over the grass course and the Americans stood shivering while they made comment on British hospitality.

It seems they thought the British attitude toward them wasn't any better than the weather. On every hand they met obstacles that are not usually placed in the way of visitors.

A few hours before the qualifying round started, the Americans were relieved of their best club, the corrugated mashie, by edict of the governing board. They had been practicing with that club continuously. They could see no reason why the British let them practice with it up to the eve of the match and then took it away from them. They needed it badly on the wet course.

Everywhere they went, they say, they were neglected and, in some instances, derided. Several said before they left that they would never again return to England to play golf.

Gerald Patterson, who won the Wimbledon tennis championship last year, declared, after the tournament, that he would never go back, because of the treatment he said he suffered.

There must be some good reason for the change of sentiment. It is certainly not in retaliation for treatment of British athletes visiting the United States, though the number of these is small.

Some believe it may be prompted by resentment against the increasingly frequent successful invasion of England by American stars. Jock Hutchinson and Walter Hagen captured the open title two years. Before that, it was considered exclusively British. Americans won the Walker cup again this year.

At any rate the team from United States cannot be accused of making these statements because of its comparatively poor showing. The thing reached such a stage that London sport writers are commenting upon it.

More and more Olympic material is bobbing up all the time. Boots Lever, star sprinter of Pennsylvania, ran the 60 yards recently in 6 4-5 seconds and then stepped 70 yards in 7 5-10 seconds for a new world record in both.

In Chicago, Walter Brookins ran the 220 low hurdles in 23 6-10 seconds for a new world mark. D. Hubbard of Michigan jumped 25 feet and 2 inches—just an inch less than the record.

Bob Shawkey is being hailed as the most valuable pitcher the New York Yankees ever had. He came to them in 1915, and in nine seasons since that time has won 124 games, losing only 88. The Yanks got him for a waiver price.

St. Louis—Phil Ball, owner of the St. Louis Browns denied he was looking for a manager to finish the season in place of Lee Fohl and that George Sisler would manage the club next season.

SPORT CHATTER

Philadelphia—In a colorless eight round battle, Bennie Leonard, worlds lightweight champion, outpointed Alex Hart, 134, Lorraine Ohio, by a wide margin at the Phillies ball park. Joe Lynch, bantam weight titleholder, shaded Bobby Wolgast, Philadelphia in 8 fast rounds. Nate Goldman Philadelphia shaded Pinkie Mitchell, Milwaukee in 8 rounds. Danny Kramer, Philadelphia, won from Tommy Noble, England, in eight rounds. Richie Mitchell, Milwaukee, outpointed George Russell, who substituted for Joe Tiplitz, in an eight round bout.

New York—Negotiations are under way for a light heavyweight championship fight in the Yankee stadium on September 29 between Tommy Gibbons and Gene Tunney. Jimmy Johnston, match-maker of the Crownwell club announced.

New York—Four promoters, Tex Rickard, Tom O'Rourke, Jimmy Johnston and Simon Flaherty are prepared to offer bids for the proposed Jack Dempsey-Harry Wills heavyweight fight when Jack Kearns, manager of the champion arrives here the last of the week.

Suzanne at Golf

Suzanne Lenglen, world's champion woman tennis player, discarded the racket for the mashie to play in a recent golf tournament at St. Germain.

Drained out the Substitute at the First Silver Flash Station

"Had to fill up with the other stuff when I ran short—but I dumped every drop of it as soon as I got to a real gasoline station!"

Not a week goes by without seeing this little drama acted out in literal reality at Silver Flash stations.

For you, as for these critical "old-timers," the margin of quality between

and dreg-born, cracked, motor fuel is too great to permit the using up of even a single filling of the so-called "cheaper" kind.

It is not extravagance, but genuine economy to insure a continuation of missless hitting, of freedom from carbon and lubrication troubles, and of full motoring comfort, by draining the dregs of a substitute motor fuel before refilling with Silver Flash.

Making Railroad History in 1923

DURING the remainder of the present year the railroads will be confronted with the task of handling the greatest volume of traffic in American history. The demands for freight service in that period seem certain to exceed the peaks of war time and the boom of 1920.

To make good in 1923 means that all previous records must be broken. That is a big job for railroad managers and employees. There must be no failure—for failure would be a national disaster. In meeting the situation the railroads have solemnly pledged themselves to a vast program of concerted and co-operative action.

The success of that program is contingent upon the wholehearted support of the public, the loyalty of every man in the railroad service, and freedom from the ill-timed and demoralizing interjection of politics. Any man who strives to make the railroads a political football in 1923 when they are grappling with the most difficult and momentous task in their history, may be stigmatized as an enemy of good government.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Relieved of Nervousness and Other Distressing Ailments by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

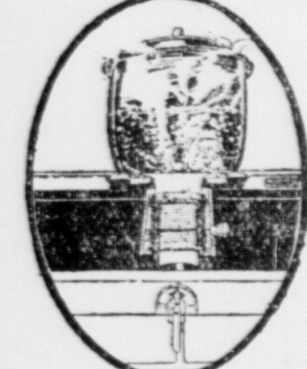

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound four years ago, and am taking it now for the Change of Life and other troubles and I receive great benefit from it. I am willing to let you use my letter as a testimonial because it is the truth. I found your booklet in my letter box and read it carefully, and that is how I came to take the Vegetable Compound myself. It has given me quiet nerves so that I sleep all night, and a better appetite. I have recommended it already to all my friends and relatives."—Mrs. ENGLEMAN, 2032 Palmetto St., Ridgewood, Brooklyn, N. Y.

For the woman suffering from nervous troubles causing sleeplessness, headache, hysteria, "the blues," Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will be found a splendid medicine. For the woman of middle age who is passing through the trials of that period, it can be depended upon to relieve the troubles common at that time.

Remember, the Vegetable Compound has a record of nearly fifty years of service and thousands of women praise its merit, as does Mrs. Englemann. You should give it a fair trial now.

Animal Picture Is Coming

The "Hunting Big Game in Africa" picture which ran for three solid months at the Lyric in New York will open the local engagement here Wednesday at the Princess Theatre. They were made by director H. A. Snow of the Oakland, California, Museum of Natural History, whose African expedition returned the current season after three years' work and 60,000 miles' travel in the Dark Continent. Profiting by the costly experience of pioneers, Mr. Snow took along his own laboratory and chemicals as well as high-powered guns and high power cameras. Static streaks were conquered by developing the negatives nightly on each locale. "Stalk—grind—fight—shoot—develop" were the mottoes of this extraordinary expedition.

The resulting pictures show more than fifty kinds of big game in vital action, intimate forest life, or deadly grapple with invaders. Many of the incidents are so amazing that words cannot make them seem plausible, only the projected film convinces. Snow and his men showed the valor of trailmakers like Daniel Boone and scout hunters like Carson and Cody.

The pictures were designated as the authoritative record of the Last Wild—the pachyderms, lions, leopards, giraffes, zebras, warthogs, buffaloes, elands, giant birds and snakes that ten years hence will no longer herd nor flock but hide isolated from devouring civilization. They are all sun-clear, and they present the drama of wild Nature with every beast of the mysterious Continent a living character.

Scientifically correct, "Hunting Big Game in Africa" will correct many misconceptions derived from the sheltered conditions of menageries.

"Salome" Coming To Mystic
The grandeur and glory of regal Jerusalem were recreated in the William Fox studios at Hollywood, Cal., when "Salome," the spectacular Fox offering underlined at the Mystic Theatre for Wednesday was filmed.

An exact duplicate of the Holy City, from the famous Jaffa gate to the streets and buildings leading to the king's palace, was built especially for this colossal production. The central tower of the palace rises more than 150 feet, and on either side are massive wings, each over 200 feet in length. Stretching into the distance are the houses of the ancient capital.

The magnificence of Herod's throne-room beggars description. Flanking the immense chamber on either side are twelve huge golden columns. The throne, built on a raised dais, was decorated with priceless tapestries, and rugs of fabulous value covered the approach to his majesty's presence.

The furnishings for Salome's boudoir which were copied from a rare Biblical print, were gathered at vast expense from the finest stores in America and from exclusive exporters of foreign lands.

Even today the spell of Jerusalem hangs over the entire world, now that the holy City has been but recently wrested from the Turk. This spell is doubly revived in "Salome," which in the film production by Fox has an eloquence beyond the reach of mere words.

Reunion of Rush-Fayette County Association at Indianapolis

The twenty-fifth annual reunion of the Rush-Fayette County association will be held at Brookside park in Indianapolis next Sunday, July 15. It will be an all day meeting, with a basket dinner at noon and an address in the afternoon by Congressman Richard N. Elliott of Connersville. An interesting program of music, both vocal and instrumental, has also been arranged.

The association was formed for the annual getting together of former residents of these two counties in Indianapolis and vicinity, but in recent years several Rush county people have been attending.

Impromptu reminiscent talks will be made during the day. Ice cream and lemonade will be served. Thomas M. Greenlee of Indianapolis, formerly of this city, is president of the organization.

CABIN WILL BE MOVED TO PARK

Committee Finds Log House in Which
Gen. P. A. Hackleman Was Born
to be Well Preserved

FROM 113 TO 115 YEARS OLD

Can be Taken Apart and Moved
Here For Erection in Park Without Suffering Any Damage

The committee of Rushville citizens which inspected the log cabin in which General P. A. Hackleman was born in Franklin county, Monday, found that the old log house is in a fine state of preservation and can easily be moved to the new park which the Rushville city council proposes to create in the tract of land adjoining the present city park on the north.

Preparations will be made at once to move the cabin here. Frank Reynolds of the Reynolds Manufacturing company has offered the use of one of his logging trucks to haul it to Rushville some day when the weather is not fit for hauling logs.

The cabin will be torn down and the parts marked so that it can be erected in the addition to the city park and will look just as it does now, situated in a hollow in a Franklin county woods.

The cabin is between 113 and 115 years of age, the committee was informed by Franklin county historians, and is so well preserved that every log in it can be moved without being damaged, with the possible exception of two.

The cabin is about twenty by thirty feet and has a loft, which may be reached by a winding stairway, that Rush county men who viewed it yesterday said was a marvel. There is an immense stone chimney which may be taken down and rebuilt here, it is believed.

One-half of the roof still is covered with old clapboards such as were used before shingles came into use. The north side of the roof, however, has been shingled. It is planned to reproduce the old roof when the cabin is brought here.

The members of the committee, which was composed of Mayor Walter R. Thomas, Robert L. Tompkins, Robert E. Mansfield, Walter F. Easley, Omer Truesler and E. J. Knecht, were enthused over the project and believe that it will be a very valuable asset in the new park.

If the proposal to locate the bust of General Hackleman in the park is successful, the historic value of the cabin will be greatly increased, it is believed, and will mean much to the future of the county.

In view of the fact that General Hackleman was the only Indiana general killed in the civil war, repeated efforts have been made to get recognition of his military record by the state and nation, but none of them was ever successful.

SEVERAL NARROWLY ESCAPE DROWNING

Miss Grace Schaeffer Drags Young
Men Under Water When She Gets
Beyond Her Depth

HER BROTHER ALSO RESCUED

Drowning fatalities were almost registered in Rushville Monday night when several swimmers had a narrow escape in a gravel pit north of Rushville. Dixie Bennett and a companion pursued Miss Grace Schaeffer to enter deeper water, and as a result Miss Schaeffer stepped in water that was over her head, and she clung to Bennett and the other boy, pulling them underneath. The trio went down twice, when their calls for help were heard.

Charley Schaeffer, brother of Miss Schaeffer, was in the swimming party, and he went to their rescue, only to be pulled down by his sister who was struggling for her life. Other swimmers assisted in the rescue, and Charley Schaeffer was removed to the bank, where it was necessary to give him first aid treatment. The others also survived after being compelled to rest for a time.

MERCURY IS CLIMBING AGAIN

Continuance Of Heat Wave Predict-
ed With Temperature At 90

The mercury is again taking an upward trend, this week, after having netted decently last week, and Monday and today the indicator pointed around 90 degrees, according to Elwood Kirkwood, in charge of the government station at Mauney.

The hot temperature today, however, was somewhat offset with a breeze that aided greatly in keeping the intense heat from being noticed. Indications for a continuance of the heat wave is predicted by the weather bureau, with increasing cloudiness tonight.

The hottest to be recorded this summer was a few weeks ago, in June, when 93 degrees was reached by the thermometer.

Per Capita Basis

Schools of Other Counties—Sum
Each Unit Receives

Distribution of Rush county's share of the school revenue returned by the state auditor after the state distribution has been completed and the warrants were mailed out today to the township trustees and other school officials of the county.

Rush county turned over to the state for school purposes the sum of $23,744.84, three-fourths of which was raised by taxation, at the June settlement, and received back only $9,857.94, making the balance against the county $13,886.90. This represents the sum Rush county contributes toward the support of the schools of other counties.

The distribution in both the state and county is made on a per capita basis. The number of persons of school age in the state is divided into the amount to be distributed to arrive at the per capita.

The common school revenue which the county sent to the state in June was composed of taxes, which amounted to $19,999.85, and interest on loans of the common school fund, or any other indebtedness due and payable to the fund, which amounted to $3,744.99.

The sum distributed in the county also included $716.41 which was derived from the congressional township fund, including the interest on loans of the fund, and on deferred

THREE PLEAD NOT GUILTY BEFORE MAYOR

John Ricker, Frank Whitton and
Earl Miller Arraigned For Trans-
porting Liquor

ALL GIVE BONDS FOR $400

John Ricker and Frank Whitton, who were arrested Sunday evening by the police, said to be intoxicated, were arraigned in police court, before Mayor Thomas last night, and each entered a plea of not guilty, and the third arrest, Earl Miller, which was made last night, also resulted in a plea of not guilty.

The three men are charged with unlawfully transporting liquor, and all of them gave bonds in the sum of $400 each. Their trial has been set for Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

A quart bottle of liquor was said to have been found by the police, near one of the men, and the affidavit charges that the three made a trip Sunday to the hills of Franklin county and purchased the liquor.

Miller is accused of using his machine for making the trip, and the trio is charged with transporting it. The new law under such circumstances, makes the crime a felony, upon conviction, punishable with a prison term.

The completed program for the Rush county chautauqua, August 5 to 11 inclusive, was announced today, together with the names of the guarantors from whom season tickets may now be purchased.

The price of the tickets will be the same. Adult season tickets, which will be non-transferable as usual, may be purchased for $2.00 of guarantors prior to the opening of the chautauqua, but after that time they will be $2.50. Children's season tickets, admitting children between the ages of eight and twelve, are also non-transferable and may be bought of guarantors for $1.00.

The Shepherd of the Hills company will present two famous plays on Thursday and on Friday Buchanan's Million Dollar band will be the attraction.

The program measures up to any that has been offered in the eighteen years that the chautauqua has been in progress here and it is expected that the guarantors tickets will be taken rapidly.

The Rush county teachers institute will be held in connection with the chautauqua again this year, the teachers returning to the old custom which was in vogue for many years, but was abandoned a few years ago on the theory that the chautauqua conflicted with the institute. ## PICNIC DETAILS ARE COMPLETED

Pilgrims of Nahor Outing Near
Carthage Thursday

SOME FEATURES ARRANGED

R. H. Hollywood, Past Grand Master of Indianapolis, Said to Have Something Amusing in Store

The committee in charge of the Pilgrims of Nahor picnic to be held near Carthage next Thursday are rapidly whipping the details in shape and announce that all indications point to a very successful meeting. Members of the committee who have visited the grounds recently report them in fine shape with ideal bathing facilities, the water being of variable depths for all classes of swimmers with sand and gravel bottom surrounded by beautiful shade trees and lawn.

Tables have already been sent to the ground for serving the cafeteria lunch at noon and a refreshment stand will be on hand to cater to the wants of all.

Reports from out-of-town points indicate that the attendance from those points will outnumber the local people and that many of them have surprises in store in the way of entertainment. The Milroy delegation have secured Ned Jackson, the talented young singer, and R. H. Hollywood, past grand master of Indianapolis, a Nimrod, has inquired as to the number of Nimrods that will likely be in attendance which would indicate that he has something in store that will be amusing.

The Nimrods a select and restricted group, will have separate accommodations and signs will be erected directing them to their proper places. The Knights of L'Eon will wear their decorations to indicate their rank. The announcement that no collection will be taken has created some surprise as the collection has always been one of the most important features of all meetings heretofore. The mortality rate of spring chickens is expected to increase greatly during the next two days, as fried chicken has been declared the password for the picnic.

WHOLESALE LIQUOR LAW VIOLATIONS SEEN

Federal Agents Held Warrants For
Arrest of Fort Wayne and Allen
County People

BOOTLEGGERS IN CONFESSIONS

(By United Press)

Fort Wayne, Ind., July 10—Developments in the intensive federal probe into liquor law violations here revealed today a marked widespread traffic in whiskey and beer in Fort Wayne and Allen county.

Federal agents hold score of warrants for the arrest of local persons and everything points to a booze clean-up of unrivaled scope.

Confessions made by a number of bootleggers and operators of stills already arrested showed that a regular system of booze manufacture, distribution and sale, has been in progress here for many months.

Dry law violators already in the toils, told of having regularly supplied local soft drink parlors and other concerns with large supplies of moonshine whiskey and beer.

Late yesterday afternoon, Bernard A. Moran, head of the B. A. Moran Ice Company, was taken into custody, following a raid by federal officials on the company's plant where a quantity of beer was found.

SEARCH FOR NULL REDOUBLED TODAY

Possible That Missing Aid Of Dead
Ballooner, Lieut. Roth, May
Be Still Alive

AIRPLANES AID IN SEARCH

Authorities Believe That Null Leap-
ed Into Lake In Vain Effort To
Save The Balloon

(By United Press)

Port Stanley, Ont., July 10.—Search for Lieutenant T. B. Null missing from the ill-fated United States Navy balloon A-6698 was redoubled following discovery of the body of Lieutenant L. J. Roth, his companion, 14 miles off Port Stanley in Lake Erie yesterday.

Airplanes and all manner of water craft took up search with the hope of finding the missing airman still alive. As long as Lieut. Null is missing, there is a chance that he may not be dead, authorities here declare.

The body of Lieutenant Roth, found floating in the basket of the air monster, by the fishing boat Onajag and brought into Port Stanley, was taken to Cleveland last night by Lieutenant James H. Strong in a hydro-airplane.

Lieutenant Null stripped himself of his clothing and leaped into Lake Erie early Saturday morning in a vain effort to save the balloon, authorities declared they believed after an investigation of the basket in which Lieutenant Roth's body was tied.

The balloon was struck by a furious storm while flying over Lake Erie, it was believed. The airman were blown dangerously close to the foaming crest of the lake, and in an effort to send their craft above the storm and save it from being wrecked in the open water, miles from any port, the ballast and articles of any weight were tossed from the balloon. The massive gay bag arose but the fury of the storm again drove it down. The two lieutenants threw away everything save a few tubes of food. The balloon still hovered just above the water.

Null, an officer of the United States navy and honoring its traditions and fastening on a life belt he hurled himself into the stormy waters—gave himself as a human ballast.

Whether he was able to save himself in the storm is yet to be learned.

M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOLS WILL HOLD A PICNIC

Addresses by Three Men of Prominence, Basket Dinner and Social
Features for July 31

MASSSED ORCHESTRA PLANNED

A picnic for Methodist Sunday schools of the county will be held at the city park here on Tuesday, July 31, three weeks from today, and speakers of prominence in the church will deliver addresses. A meeting of pastors and one layman from each church in the county was held here last week to complete plans for the picnic.

The picnic will begin at ten o'clock in the morning and a program will be carried out before the noon hour. A basket dinner will be served and, in the afternoon a social time will be enjoyed and athletic contests for the boys will be arranged. Church choirs of the county will provide selections and A. P. Wagoner of this city is endeavoring to arrange for a massed orchestra composed of the M. E. Sunday school orchestras of the county.

The speakers, whose identity has not been made known, will be sent here by Bishop Leete of the Indianapolis area, who is sponsoring similar meetings throughout his jurisdiction. They will go to Connersville the afternoon of the same day to address a similar meeting of Fayette county churches.

There are fourteen Methodist churches in county and each is expected to send a good size delegation.

CODLING MOTH IS ABUNDANT IN STATE

Every Effort Should Be Made To
Spray Thoroughly For The Second Brood Of Larvae

SUGGESTED DATES FOR WORK

The codling moth or apple worm is very abundant in Indiana this year and every effort should be made to spray thoroughly for the second brood of larvae.

According to Prof. J. J. Davis, head of the department of entomology, Purdue University, a study of the insect and weather conditions in several sections of Indiana shows that the larvae will be hatching soon and therefore the first spray for the second brood should be made on the following dates: From Mitchell and Vincennes south, July 10-12; Bloomington south, July 12-15; Nashville south, July 16-18; Port Wayne south, July 19-22; extreme north end of the state, July 23-26. The fruit should be thoroughly covered with an arsenate of lead spray, three pounds to 100 gallons of water, by these dates and to get the best results a similar application should be made again two weeks later.

Forecasting the time to spray for the second brood of worms, which sometimes cause serious losses to the apple crop, has been very successful in the past and has resulted in a great saving. This spray is doubly important.

Phoenix Lodge No. 62 F. and A. M. will have a state meeting tonight at 7:30 p. m. at the Masonic Temple.

Clinton County Wheat Treating Ring Succeeds

Clinton county farmers have demonstrated that the hot water treatment of seed wheat to prevent smut can be successfully done by farmers without any help. Last fall ten farmers, J. M. Hillis, Tim New, Jarrell Bros., D. L. Mabbitt, Russell Jenkins, L. L. Finkle, F. S. Fiddle, Claude Horlader, R. W. Imnell and Ray Gaskill treated their wheat at four different farmer's cooperative treating stations.

This treated wheat was examined on June 8 by Purdue University extension botanists and it would be difficult to find finer looking fields. "If D. L. Mabbitt had any more wheat on his treated field he would have to take down the fences to prevent the plant being choked to death," is the way one of the men put it. Early last spring Mr. Mabbitt was very doubtful if the field would amount to anything. In this wheat was found just one head of smut. Jarrell Bros. have a field of wheat just as good. L. L. Finkle wheat is good and J. M. Hillis' treated wheat will be hard to beat.

These Clinton county farmers have shown two things: first, that the farmers can treat their own wheat if they will carefully follow directions and not begin the work until they have been started right; second, that hot water treated wheat will produce as good a crop if not better than the untreated wheat.

THIRTEEN LITTERS IN THE COMPETITION

Seven Rush County Farmers Entered
In The Hoosier Ten Litter
Club This Year

TOUR PLANNED FOR AUGUST

Seven Rush county farmers have nominated a total of 13 litters for competition in the Hoosier Ten Litter Club this year, County Agent D. D. Ball reports.

One farmer, Thos. W. Chambers, has nominated seven litters, totalling 72 pigs, and it is his goal to market this carload of pigs from seven sows at an average age of six months and weighing 200 pounds per head or better. This will not only put him in the Gold Medal class, but will serve as an excellent demonstration of good management and feeding.

Mr. Chambers has also the distinction of saving 94 per cent of all pigs farrowed.

A tour to a number of the Ten Litter Farms is planned for the middle of August, to be held the same day at the soy bean field demonstration meeting, thus connecting the two projects.

Tester Shows Dairyman How to Reduce Feed Bill

There were 370 cows tested in the local cow testing associations last month in Washington County, with an average production of 26.5 lb. fat. The average of the ten high cows was 51.7 lb. fat and 98.5 lb. of milk. Ten unprofitable cows were sold during the month. The result in one herd demonstrated the advisability of feeding cows as individuals. In this herd, all cows had been fed the same in March, the tester figured the amount of grain needed for each cow with the result that 40 lbs. of grain was saved daily without any decrease in milk production. Members generally are using home mixed feed and increasing their acreage of legumes for roughage, says County Agent C. R. Furnas.

PURDUE RATION PAYS

The 619 hens kept on the Duncan Poultry Demonstration Farm in Monroe County produced 11,580 eggs during May. The total expenses for the month were $94.41 and the total income $189.67, leaving a profit of $95.26. It required 74 hours labor to care for the flock, making a labor income of $1.28 per hour. The hens were fed the standard Purdue ration in both mash and grain.

PREVENTION IS BETTER THAN CURE

Proper Precautions Are Repaid By
Increased Vitality Of Chick And
Fowl, Says Expert

NEED SIMPLE TREATMENT

Poultryman Usually Kills Any Birds
That Do Not Recover Quickly
From Simple Treatment

Preventive measures are always the best treatment for poultry troubles. A fowl should be handled in such a way as to contract as few diseases as possible and the slightest indication of an ailment should be treated before it has a chance to get a headway. This requires constant attention, but it is the only way to success because disease in a flock of poultry reduces vitality and their production and breeding value is diminished.

None but very simple treatment is ordinarily necessary for any poultry. Any ailment that will not yield readily to simple treatment is usually so serious that even if a fowl is able to recover from it the results will not be satisfactory because the vitality of the fowl will have been lowered. Hence the practical poultryman, except in the case of particularly valuable poultry, usually kills any birds that do not recover quickly from simple treatment.

There are a few general symptoms of ill health in poultry. Fowls in poor health will usually exhibit a dull, sluggish listless appearance. They will often go to roost early and remain there in the morning until long after other fowls are out looking for food. Fowls in poor health may have a bloodless appearance, that is, there will be an absence of health and brightness in their faces, eyes, combs and wattles. They will also lay but few eggs.

Sick fowls are inclined to stay apart from the other fowls and will stand in out-of-the-way places and are found sunning themselves, their heads hung and their feathers ruffled. It is natural for fowls to sun themselves, but there is a marked difference between healthy fowls basking in the sunshine for recreation and the sick fowl standing there in the hope of warming his body.

Disease in poultry is always accompanied by a loss of appetite and generally by frequent vomiting of the bowels.

Medicine is most satisfactorily administered to a flock of fowls by being fed mixed in a warm or slightly warmed mash. When medicine is to be administered to any individual fowl pills are usually the most convenient form. When medicine is poured down a fowl's throat care be taken to avoid strangulation.

There are a few fundamental principles of treatment that can be used to good advantage in the management of poultry:

1. Clean out by means of Epsom salts, administered in an evening mash, estimating one-third of a teaspoonful for each adult bird. In some cases it may be necessary to administer this two or three times a week until there is an abatement of the disease. Even well birds should receive one such dose at the beginning of any disease in a flock.
2. Clean up the poultry house by thoroughly spraying the interior with a good insecticide so that it penetrates all cracks and crevices.
3. Purify the drinking water by adding enough permanganate of potash to turn the water a clear red. Ordinarily, use as much as can be spread on a ten cent piece to the gallon of water. If this is not available, iron sulphate in the proportion of 10 gr. to a gallon may be used.
4. Furnish poultry with only clean food. Moldy food is almost certain to produce disease and may cause death. There is no economy in feeding decayed food.
5. Clean incubators and brooders thoroughly with hot water and soap thoroughly with hot water and soap and disinfectant.
6. Breed from the youngest females consistent with the needs of good breeding.

Steady Work In Harvest Field Is Promised Men

Indianapolis, Ind., July 9. — Steady work in the harvest fields for the next five or six weeks was promised to applicants today by Prof. W. Q. Fitch, of Purdue, head of the state clearing house for men needed in the harvest field.

The most urgent need for help is in Benton and Cass counties. By sending men north into new fields as the wheat crop is harvested and calling them back to handle the hay harvest and oat crop, it will be possible for the men to obtain practically steady work for several weeks, Prof. Fitch said.

Greater Crops

CONDITIONS in the farming industry are the broad-gauged barometers of general business in the United States.

When crops are good prosperity is general.

It is obvious, therefore, that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) can turn its facilities and talents to no more important task than that of assisting the farmer to secure a greater crop return per acre.

The experience of the past ten or fifteen years has demonstrated that farms where automotive equipment is used are operated on a lower cost level and with a higher crop return than is the case where animal power is used.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is doing its utmost to promote the use of motorized machinery on the farm. Throughout ten middle western states this Company maintains a system of distribution which insures the farmer a dependable supply of gasoline, kerosene, lubricants and other products of petroleum at all times.

In this territory the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) maintains 3,780 bulk stations, out of which some 7,000 trucks and tank wagons carry its products to the farmer's home or if necessary to the tractor in the field.

This is one of the services which only a big organization could perform and it is a service worth while.

To emphasize the far reaching benefits of motorizing farm equipment, it is only necessary to state that farm property values in the United States have increased from forty billions of dollars in 1910 to eighty-five billions in 1920—an advance of 107% for a ten-year period.

The service performed by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been a factor of importance in making this increase possible.

RADIO PROFITEERS ITS GREATEST FOES

High Cost of Parts Handicap to Growth of Radio, in Opinion of Francis Hamilton

Profiteering in radio parts has done more to hinder the advance of radio than any other one element, in the opinion of Francis Hamilton of Indianapolis, formerly of this city, who has had considerable experience both as an amateur and in the army, and who spoke before the Rotary club here today noon.

Mr. Hamilton formerly had a broadcasting station in Indianapolis and conducted a column for radio fans in the Indianapolis News. He is now in the building department of the city of Indianapolis, but has not lost his interest in radio, judging from the terse explanation of the subject which he gave to Rotarians. Mr. Hamilton expressed regret that Indiana people had not shown enough interest in radio to support a broadcasting station. He said the Indianapolis stations had quit for financial reasons.

The speaker outlined the marvelous growth of radio and detailed the many valuable purposes which it served, terming its use in shipping as the most valuable. He deplored the fact that manufacturers of parts made such a large profit.

Miss Margaret Winship gave three readings before the club and was vigorously applauded. She read "Bumble Bee" by James Whitcomb Riley, "Six Times Six is Thirty-six and Six is Forty-two" and "Miss Mary Jane Brown." Miss Betty Innis played the piano accompaniment for one number.

Terre Haute, Ind., July 9—Work on the Memorial Drive which will commemorate the life of Paul Dresser, Hoosier song writer, was started here Monday.

By the stream which Dresser made famous in his first song, "On the Banks of the Wabash," Mayor Davis turned the first spade of dirt for the new drive.

Exercises at the riverside followed a big parade in which civic organizations, fraternal societies and school children marched. A medley of Dresser songs was played by the Chamber of Commerce band and Robert H. Catlin, an attorney, delivered an address on the life of Dresser.

On proclamation of Mayor Davis all business houses were closed during the hour of the ceremony to permit all employees to attend the exercises.

DAIRY CASE APPEALED

Indianapolis, Ind., July 10.—Appeal from the decision of Judge Hay of Marion County Superior court in which the Indiana members of dairy product organization and fifty allied milk and dairy concerns were acquitted of violations of anti-trust law, was asked today in transcripts filed for the state by Attorney General Lesh. The trial before Judge Hay was the result of an investigation by the state in 1921 in which 50 dairy concerns throughout the state were charged with violating the Sherman anti-trust law.

STATE PARKS NOW A BIG MOVEMENT

Small Beginning in 1916 Has Expanded Until Today The State Controls A Chain Of Them

Indianapolis, Ind., July 10.—Recreational places such as national, state and city parks; summer cottages on lakes and river shore line and in primitive wooded spots if accessible to state roads, are today accepted as integral part of our very existence.

From a small beginning in 1916 the state park movement expanded until Indiana now has a chain of beautiful reservations, situated in extreme north and south parts of the state, reflecting not only the primitive life of the commonwealth but which are linked with the state's glorious history.

There is no question but that the state park movement helped to popularize the summer resort idea, and was an efficient aid to extension of city park systems. Particularly is this true near congested industrial centers where natural beauty and architectural skill of landscape artists builded great parks whose cool shady retreats are sought by many thousands. In the last years the big city park idea reached out and was accepted by small communities. Today hardly a county but points with pride to a recreational spot, delightful either for its wooded tract or pure water supply.

See Indiana first is the motto of hundreds of thousands of motorists, and that many seek purely primitive pleasures is evidenced in that excess of 150,000 took out resident fishing and hunting licenses last year.

That state parks, the four fish hatcheries where millions of baby fish are propagated annually and planted in public waters, and state roads are a tremendous financial asset to the state, is undisputed when we learn that devotees of Ike Walton's hobby spent over seven million dollars last year. This sum is arrived at on the basis that each man who took out a dollar hunting and fishing license spent in the matter of equipment such as rods, reels, camping outfits, fishing boots, shot guns, rifles, sweaters, clothing, gasoline, oil tires restaurant and hotel service, approximately $50. That a number of people profited by this expenditure is further evidenced in the variety of things purchased. No attempt is made by conservation officials to estimate the vast good to the people by reason of rejuvenated health and the ambition to success because of escape from farm, mill and office work for a few days or weeks, but it is enormous.

We note that the secretary of state's office last year sold $2,168,160.50 worth of license plates. Estimating that each machine operator entailed an expenditure of $500, we find that the automobile was the medium through which $205,199,160.50 was put in circulation with all lines of business interests receiving a portion.

"It is next it impossible to find accommodations during the summer season in the hotels, boarding houses and cottages of our lakes and streams, while building lots on lake and river fronts are at premium," declares Mr. Lieber. "Out

The Boy Scouts

We are all interested in the welfare of the boys of this community.

Anything that will improve their condition will meet with the approval of the people in general.

What better could we do for them than to support the Boy Scout company, an organization in which boys naturally take a just pride?

Select a hundred men indiscriminately and start them out on a ten mile hike.

Will there be any order and precision to their progress? Not a bit. They will move forward as a mob—some with a degree of pride in their appearance, and others with shoulders slouched and feet scraping the ground.

That is the natural result of a lack of early training.

Take the same number of men who have had military training and start them out. You will notice a vast difference.

There will be no slouchy shoulders, no feet scraping the ground, no ungainly tread, no indecision or lack of purpose.

You will see their bodies erect, shoulders squared, heads and eyes to the front—a brisk and steady tramp, tramp, tramp. And it will be purely instinctive and without premeditation.

That is the result of training.

The Boy Scout organization does not make soldiers of men, but it does make real men out of boys.

The physical training is much along the lines of that provided in the army, with enough variation to satisfy the juvenile heart. And the world admits that military training is the best that has ever been devised by mankind.

The Boy Scout company will be wonderfully beneficial to our boys. It gives them a hobby, while at the same time affording the physical training that would develop them as nothing else could do.

The discipline teaches them obedience to orders and self-restraint and control, and the training and moral influence combined gives them that self reliance which is so necessary in our modern business life.

We want our boys to be men among men.

Why not support the Boy Scout company to help them along?

Energy used in getting even is better spent in getting ahead.

If you think your work is hard, how about the bank clerks who count other people's money all day.

Keeping ahead is good policy so long as the other fellow hasn't a faster car.

It's not necessary to turn the clocks up to save daylight.

Now if the other nations don't regard the naval scrapping treaty as a scrap of paper, the world is headed in the right direction.

SCOUT NOTES

A special offer has been made to the Boy Scouts of Rushville and vicinity by the National headquarters whereby Scouts may obtain Boys' Life, the official Scout magazine for one year for one dollar. The regular cost of a yearly subscription is two dollars. Boys' Life compares additional articles on the different lines of Scouting. Any boys interested in this offer must get their dollars to Mr. Merrell not later than July 16. One Scout once remarked about Boys' Life: "Boys' Life is to Scouting what textbooks are to school." Dan Beard has a splendid department in this magazine for round table discussions among the boys.

Mr. Merrell will be in town tomorrow afternoon to give out the Scout registration certificates. Scouts who have paid their registration fees should see him at 836 N. Jackson St. Any other scouts who wish to pay at that time may do so.

FIFTEEN YEARS
AGO TODAYFrom The Daily Republican
Friday, July 10, 1908

Denver, July 10—Just as the sun peeped over the edge of the plain in the east, tinting with its delicate colors the peaks of the mountains shadowed in purple, the vote that made William Jennings Bryan the nominee of his party for a third time to make the race for the presidency of the United States was cast in the Denver Auditorium and the great crowd, most of which, women and all, had waited through the long hours of the night and listened with unwilling ears much of the time to a long list of nominating speeches, left the hall for its late couch, most of the delegates to remain abed until noon, giving themselves just time to reach the hall again at one o'clock, to which time the convention adjourned.

Mayor Cowing will appoint W. R. Payne of Arlington next week to officiate as city surveyor for Rushville to fill the unexpired term of Lon Stewart, who resigned recently. Mr. Payne is a capable young man and will give his new duties his undivided attention.

Job had many things to contend with but he never had anything occur more exasperating than the ill fortune which has befallen Mrs. Nick Tompkins, living north of this city. It was with a certain sense of pride and all the love and tenderness of a mother that the wife of the hero of many ball games watched over two hundred or more little chicks; saw them break for liberty and grow from day to day until they became of age—that is large enough to fry. You never saw a woman in your life who had two hundred spring chickens but what she was proud of the acquisition but that's another story. When Mrs. Tompkins went to the chicken yard early this morning to feed the chick regiment she found them gone. They have no clue to the chicken thieves. It was a bold theft as every one of the "springers" were taken.

The hum of the threshing machine is heard all over the country today, several of the outfits in this vicinity having started out this morning.

Claude Simpson entertained his Sunday school class with a fine and dandy outing yesterday.

The "water wagon" ran over a dog on the down town streets this afternoon killing it. City Dog Undertaker Watt Bartlett interred it at the usual price—twenty five cents. More work for the undertaker.

A six o'clock dinner was given at the home of Mrs. George Monjar in West Second street last evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Bert Talbot and daughters, Hypatia and Lucile, of Indianapolis, who are the guests at David Marshalls, west of this city. Jerome Sampson was in the Capitol city today on business.

Little Vivian Vance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Vance, was painfully injured in a fall last evening. Mrs. George Goddard of West Second street is seriously ill with acute indigestion.

Roy Aldridge was voted a continued scholarship in the Purdue University this week by the county commissioners.

Mrs. Phil Wilk entertained the Bridge Whist club yesterday afternoon at her home in North Harrison street. Mrs. Frank Wilson was given the honors.

TILDEN WINS FIRST MATCH IN EASY STYLE

Manuel Alonzo, Who Defeated Champion in Illinois Matches Sunday, Downs Jack McKay

OTHER FIRST ROUND SCORES

Indianapolis, Ind., July 10—Playing a smooth easy game in his first match of the thirteenth annual clay court tennis tournament here, William Tilden II of Philadelphia won his match with Claude Watkins of Louisville, 6-0, 8-1.

Manuel Alonzo, who defeated Tilden in the Illinois matches Sunday, downed Jack McKay of Indianapolis 6-2, 6-4.

Tilden played an excellent game, and the one point of his opponent looked like the result of a deliberate move on the part of Tilden.

Art Hubbell, Chicago, defeated George O'Connell, Chicago, 6-2, 12-14, 8-6.

Walter Westbrook, Detroit defeated Phil Lewis, Indianapolis, 6-2, 6-4.

E. P. Westenhaver, Cleveland, defeated A. L. Wiener, by default.

Say England Was Cold

By PAUL R. MALLON
(Written for United Press)

New York, July 10—The air was damp and chilly at Troon when the British open golf championships were held recently.

A cold rain poured down over the grass course and the Americans stood shivering while they made comment on British hospitality.

It seems they thought the British attitude toward them wasn't any better than the weather. On every hand they met obstacles that are not usually placed in the way of visitors.

A few hours before the qualifying round started, the Americans were relieved of their best club, the corrugated mashie, by edict of the governing board. They had been practicing with that club continuously. They could see no reason why the British let them practice with it up to the eve of the match and then took it away from them. They needed it badly on the wet course.

Everywhere they went, they say, they were neglected and, in some instances, derided. Several said before they left that they would never again return to England to play golf.

Gerald Patterson, who won the Wimbledon tennis championship last year, declared, after the tournament, that he would never go back, because of the treatment he said he suffered.

There must be some good reason for the change of sentiment. It is certainly not in retaliation for treatment of British athletes visiting the United States, though the number of these is small.

St. Louis—Phil Ball, owner of the St. Louis Browns denied he was looking for a manager to finish the season in place of Lee Fohl and that George Sisler would manage the club next season.

Some believe it may be prompted by resentment against the increasingly frequent successful invasion of England—by American stars. Jock Hutchinson and Walter Hagen captured the open title two years. Before that, it was considered exclusively British. Americans won the Walker cup again this year.

At any rate the team from United States cannot be accused of making these statements because of its comparatively poor showing. The thing reached such a stage that London sport writers are commenting upon it.

More and more Olympic material is bobbing up all the time. Boots Lever, star sprinter of Pennsylvania ran the 60 yards recently in 6 4-5 seconds and then stepped 70 yards in 7 5-10 seconds for a new world record in both.

In Chicago, Walter Brookings ran the 220 low hurdles in 23 6-10 seconds for a new world mark. D. Hubbard of Michigan jumped 25 feet and 2 inches—just an inch less than the record.

Bob Shawkey is being hailed as the most valuable pitcher the New York Yankees ever had. He came to them in 1915, and in nine seasons since that time has won 124 games, losing only 88. The Yanks got him for a waiver price.

SPORT CHATTER

Philadelphia—In a colorless eight round battle, Bennie Leonard, world's lightweight champion, outpointed Alex Hart, 134, Lorraine Ohio, by a wide margin at the Phillies ball park. Joe Lynch, bantam weight titleholder, shaded Bobby Wolgast, Philadelphia in 8 fast rounds. Nate Goldman Philadelphia shaded Pinkie Mitchell, Milwaukee in 8 rounds. Danny Kramer, Philadelphia, won from Tommy Noble, England, in eight rounds. Richie Mitchell, Milwaukee, outpointed George Russell, who substituted for Joe Tiplitz, in an eight round bout.

New York—Negotiations are under way for a light heavyweight championship fight in the Yankee stadium on September 29 between Tommy Gibbons and Gene Tunney. Jimmy Johnston, match-maker of the Crownwell club announced.

New York—Four promoters, Tex Rickard, Tom O'Rourke, Jimmy Johnston and Simon Flaherty are prepared to offer bids for the proposed Jack Dempsey-Harry Wills heavyweight fight when Jack Kearns, manager of the champion arrives here the last of the week.

Suzanne at Golf

Suzanne Lenglen, world's champion woman tennis player, discarded the racket for the mashie-stick in a recent golf tournament at St. Germain.

Jack Fournier's twelfth home run put the Robins in the lead and helped them win from the Cards 5 to 3.

Three runs pushed over during the seventh inning when Johnny Morrison weakened enabled the Phils to beat the Pirates 4 to 2.

Bob Hasty gave Detroit 13 hits for 21 bases, walked two batters and hit three but the Athletics won 6 to 5.

Joe Sewell's error gave the Red Sox a 4 to 1 victory over the Indians and caused Sherry Smith to lose his first game of the season.

Sedgewick, a rookie pitcher, weakened in the sixth inning and the White Sox beat the Senators 8 to 1.

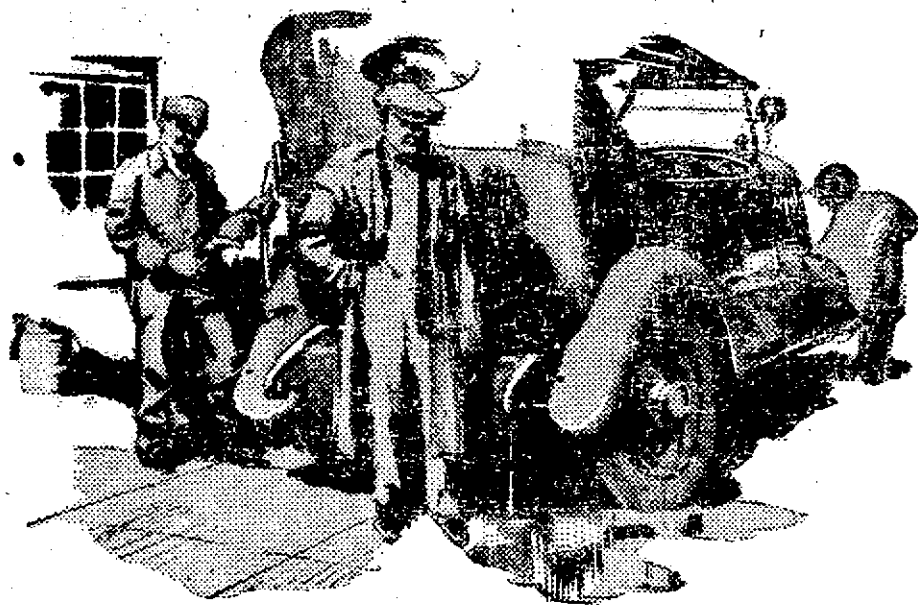

Heavy batting by Hollocher and O'Farrell gave the Cubs a 4 to 1 victory over the Braves.

Drained out the Substitute at the First Silver Flash Station

"Had to fill up with the other stuff when I ran short—but I dumped every drop of it as soon as I got to a real gasoline station!"

Not a week goes by without seeing this little drama acted out in literal reality at Silver Flash stations.

For you, as for these critical "old-timers," the margin of quality between

and dreg-born, cracked, motor fuel is too great to permit the using up of even a single filling of the so-called "cheaper" kind.

It is not extravagance, but genuine economy to insure a continuation of missless hitting, of freedom from carbon and lubrication troubles, and of full motoring comfort, by draining the dregs of a substitute motor fuel before refilling with Silver Flash.

Making Railroad History in 1923

DURING the remainder of the present year the railroads will be confronted with the task of handling the greatest volume of traffic in American history. The demands for freight service in that period seem certain to exceed the peaks of war time and the boom of 1920.

To make good in 1923 means that all previous records must be broken. That is a big job for railroad managers and employees. There must be no failure—for failure would be a national disaster. In meeting the situation the railroads have solemnly pledged themselves to a vast program of concerted and co-operative action.

The success of that program is contingent upon the wholehearted support of the public, the loyalty of every man in the railroad service, and freedom from the ill-timed and demoralizing interjection of politics. Any man who strives to make the railroads a political football in 1923 when they are grappling with the most difficult and momentous task in their history, may be stigmatized as an enemy of good government.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Relieved of Nervousness and Other Distressing Ailments by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound four years ago, and am taking it now for the Change of Life and other troubles and I receive great benefit from it. I am willing to let you use my letter as a testimonial because it is the truth. I found your booklet in my letter-box and read it carefully, and that is how I came to take the Vegetable Compound myself. It has given me quiet nerves so that I sleep all night, and a better appetite. I have recommended it already to all my friends and relatives."—Mrs. EXCELSIOR, 2092 Palmetto St., Ridgewood, Brooklyn, N. Y.

For the woman suffering from nervous troubles causing sleeplessness, headache, hysteria, "the blues," Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will be found a splendid medicine. For the woman of middle age who is passing through the trials of that period, it can be depended upon to relieve the troubles common at that time.

Remember, the Vegetable Compound has a record of nearly fifty years of service and thousands of women praise its merit, as does Mrs. Englemann.

You should give it a fair trial now.

Mrs. Nitti-Crudelle and her husband Frank Crudelle were found guilty yesterday of the hammer murder of the woman's first husband and both sentenced to hang.

THEATRES MOVIES

Animal Picture Is Coming

The "Hunting Big Game in Africa" picture which ran for three solid months at the Lyric in New York will open the local engagement here Wednesday at the Princess Theatre. They were made by director H. A. Snow of the Oakland, California, Museum of Natural History, whose African expedition returned the current season after three years' work and 60,000 miles' travel in the Dark Continent. Profiting by the costly experience of pioneers, Mr. Snow took along his own laboratory and chemicals as well as high-powered guns and high power cameras. Static, streaks were conquered by developing the negatives nightly on each locale. "Stalk—grind—fight—shoot—develop" were the mottoes of this extraordinary expedition.

The resulting pictures show more than fifty kinds of big game in vital action, intimate forest life, or deadly grapple with invaders. Many of the incidents are so amazing that words cannot make them seem plausible, only the projected film convinces. Snow and his men showed the valor of trailmakers like Daniel Boone and scout hunters like Carson and Cody.

The pictures were designated as the authoritative record of the Last Wild—the pachyderms, lions, leopards, giraffes, zebras, warthogs, buffaloes, elands, giant birds and snakes that ten years hence will no longer herd nor flock but hide isolated from devouring civilization. They are all sun-clear, and they present the drama of wild Nature with every beast of the mysterious Continent a living character.

Scientifically correct, "Hunting Big Game in Africa" will correct many misconceptions derived from the sheltered conditions of menageries.

EFFORTS CENTERED ON ELECTION DAY

Final Drive Made By Harding Supporters To Elect Gov. Preus To Minnesota Senate

BITTER ELECTION JULY 16

St. Paul, Minn., July 10.—Republican administration forces today began their final drive to elect Governor J. A. O. Preus, President Harding's choice as the successor of the late United States Senator Knute Nelson.

The Minneapolis Tribune and the Minneapolis Journal, administration Republican papers sounded what was regarded as a warning Preus may be defeated by Magnus Johnson the farmer-labor candidate, and called for a "big vote" election day—July 16.

Johnson is drawing support from both Republican and Democratic ranks. Thomas Frankson, former lieutenant governor is heading a new Republican progressive club that is working for the farmer-laborite.

The split last week in the farmer-labor party convention in Chicago will not affect Johnson's strength, his proponents claim.

Senator James A. Carley, Democratic nominee today bid for the "wet" vote by saying he believes in common sense interpretation of the prohibition laws.
